

Join us for TBTF's Tech Tuesday!

Are you ready to network?

You asked for more time to network with your fellow TBTF members --and we've responded with a new "non" program for 2008 that's just what you've been waiting for.

Tech Tuesday will feature drink specials, complimentary appetizers, and unlimited networking time with all the movers and shakers in the local tech community.

No other place in town will have this amount of tech industry power in one spot on a Tuesday night. Get plugged in to and caught up on the latest tech news in Tampa Bay - straight from the newsmakers themselves.

See you there!
